Band Meme of the Week

The Last Band Hall Visit

Before you leave the band hall for the last time, stop and look around for just one moment. These four walls have seen you at your worst and at your best. They have watched families created, and families fall apart. They have seen love between two people and one-sided crushes. They have seen your most joyous days and maybe melancholy ones. They have seen the person when you walked in for the first time and now have seen the person you are for the last time. And when you turn your back and walk the halls for the very last time, know that the walls are silently weeping and maybe you are too because you both realized that to go somewhere in life, you must leave home.
